

CHALLENGER WEDNESDDAY MORNING WATCH

You may have heard of David in the Bible. The true story in 1 Samuel of his killing the giant, Goliath, is usually one of the first we learn as children. There is so much more to David's life and much for us to learn about our relationship with God from David's relationship with God. In Acts 13:22, the Bible describes King David of Israel as "a man after God's own heart". This echoes the words in 1 Samuel 16:7 when God tells Samuel that he looks at the heart when he chooses a person.

Look more at David's heart and what the Bible says about the heart.

 Read Psalm 51

 What does this passage of the Bible tell you about David's heart?

 Go back through the passage and look for specific ways he expresses his feelings, beliefs, and desires as they relate to God.

Write what you observe here.

Now, look in the back of your Bible and find the Concordance. Some Bibles call it an Index or Dictionary. Your Counselor can help you if your Bible does not have something like this.

 Look up the word "heart".  Write down the location or address of 5 verses. (for example, Psalm 119:11)  Then next to each address, write what this verse says about the "Heart" (for example, I can hide God's word in my heart.)
